

Vonda Eanes
Director for CRA and Fair Lending Policy

Vonda Eanes is the Director for Community Reinvestment Act (CRA) and Fair Lending Policy at the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC).

In this role, Ms. Eanes leads a team of specialists responsible for identifying risks, and developing and providing guidance on CRA and fair lending supervisory policy. She assumed these duties in January 2017.

Ms. Eanes joined the OCC in 2000 as a national bank examiner and compliance specialist and most recently served as the OCC's District Community Affairs Officer for North and South Carolina. Prior to joining the OCC, Ms. Eanes held a variety of positions in banking. She served for nine years as a regional CRA & Compliance Manager, four years as a commercial banker and five years in retail banking.

Ms. Eanes earned a bachelor's degree in Music Education from James Madison University. She is also a Certified Regulatory Compliance Manager from the American Bankers Association Graduate School of Compliance Management.

