The bank's AA is comprised of three contiguous census tracts. This area meets the requirements of the regulation and does not arbitrarily exclude any low- and/or moderate-income (LMI) geographies. A further description of the AA is presented on the following page.

There are no low-income census tracts within the AA. With approximately 6,000 of the county's 8,000 residents, the City of Brady is the most populous census tract. Based on the 2000 census, the central district of the City of Brady is located in a moderate-income census tract, with the majority of rural portions classified as upper-income. Upper and middle-income areas in the county divide the town of Melvin. The census tract that includes Voca is designated as an upper-income area, and the census tract surrounding Lohn and Rochelle are middle-income areas.

Approximately 32% of the families in the AA are considered low-income. Moderate-income families approximate 16% of the population, while middle- and upper-income families comprise the remaining 52%. There are 4,184 housing units in the AA, of which 57% are owner-occupied, 21% renter-occupied, and 22% vacant. Local estimates indicate that 40% of the vacant units are uninhabitable. On average, housing stock is 40-years old. A local appraiser stated that the majority of units currently for sale in the AA range between $40,000 and $75,000. Major area employers include Brady ISD, Heartland Rig International, Heart of Texas Memorial Hospital and Wal-Mart.

In order to gather more current information on the nature of the community and potential lending opportunities in the AA, we contacted one community leader during this examination. This contact was a Commissioner for the City of Brady. This contact stressed the need for affordable housing and rental properties for LMI families within the AA. The contacts further stated that economic conditions were stable and that CNB is active in the community and responsive to the credit needs in the counties it serves. The contact stated that there were no unmet credit needs in the City of Brady.

CONCLUSIONS ABOUT PERFORMANCE CRITERIA

Management has been successful in meeting the credit needs of its AA, including LMI individuals, consistent with its resources and capabilities.

Loan-to-Deposit Ratio

CNB's LTD ratio is very good, given its asset size, financial condition, and lending opportunities in the AA. Since the last CRA examination, the LTD ratio has decreased slightly from 64% at December 31, 1998 to 59% at March 31, 2004; however, the average LTD ratio over the past 22 quarters was 62% and exceeded the local peer average. The average LTD ratio of three similarly situated banks headquartered in the local area was 47% during this same time period. The asset size and LTD ratio for CNB and its competing banks are listed below.

Lending in Assessment Area

A substantial majority of the bank's loans are made within its AA. In order to assess performance for these criteria, we reviewed a sample of 23 consumer, 25 residential, 24 commercial, and 25 agricultural loans originated during 2003 through March 2004. Our analysis determined that 95% of the number and 94% of the dollar amount of our sampled loans were made within the AA. A summary of our sample is listed below.

Lending to Borrowers of Different Incomes and to Businesses of Different Sizes

CNB's loan portfolio reflects an excellent distribution among individuals of various income levels and commercial and agricultural-related businesses of different sizes within the AA. Our analysis included a sample of 22 consumer, 22 residential, 24 commercial, and 24 agricultural loans originated during the period of January 2003 through March 2004.

Our analysis determined that CNB lends to all applicants, regardless of their income category. Based on the 2000 Census, 48% of AA households are LMI. Our review determined that 68% of consumer loans were made to LMI households. However, the bank's penetration of residential loans to low-income families was below AA demographics. Based on the 2000 Census, 28% of AA families are low-income. According to the community contact made during this evaluation, there are very few homes available in the AA at selling prices that LMI families could qualify for. The following chart reflects the results of our selected sample of consumer loans originated in CNB's AA.

CNB originates commercial and agricultural-related loans in a manner consistent with area demographics. The bank's distribution of loans to "small businesses and farms with revenues less than $1 million" is reflective of CNB's focus on providing loans that will enhance the local economy. The following charts reflect data from the review of 48 commercial and agricultural-related loans originated between January 2003 and March 2004.
