The Comptroller of the Currency of the United States of America (“Comptroller”) and JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, Columbus, Ohio (“Bank”) hereby agree to amendments to Consent Order, AA-EC-11-15, dated April 13, 2011 (“2011 Consent Order”), and the Amendment to the 2011 Consent Order, dated February 28, 2013 (“2013 ACO”), (collectively, the “Consent Order”).¹ The Bank, by and through its duly elected and acting Board of Directors (“Board”), has executed a Stipulation and Consent to the Issuance of an Amendment to the Consent Order (“Amendment”), dated June 16, 2015 (“Stipulation”), which is accepted by the Comptroller and incorporated by reference herein.

WHEREAS, the Bank has failed to comply with Articles II, III, IV, VIII, and IX of the Consent Order. The ten (10) remaining actionable items of the ninety-eight (98) actionable items in the Consent Order are included in this Amendment;

WHEREAS, the Bank is in continuing noncompliance with and in violation of the Consent Order, and continues to engage in unsafe and unsound practices;

WHEREAS, upon execution of this Amendment, the OCC is placing the Bank under the following supervisory restrictions: (1) no execution of new contracts or the amendment or renewal of existing contracts beyond current loan volume specified in existing contracts for the acquisition, by the Bank, of residential mortgage servicing, residential mortgage servicing rights, residential mortgage loans with servicing, or residential mortgage origination business entities without prior OCC supervisory non-objection until termination of the Consent Order (this does not apply to originations or refinancings by the Bank, contracts for new residential mortgage loans through the Bank's broker or correspondent channels, or other contractual relationships where the Bank does not ultimately service the loans, and this is not intended to disrupt any of the Bank's existing residential mortgage servicing related contracts); (2) no execution of new contracts for the Bank to perform residential mortgage servicing for other parties without prior OCC supervisory non-objection until termination of the Consent Order; (3) no new residential mortgage servicing related activities may be outsourced or sub-serviced to other parties without prior OCC supervisory non-objection until termination of the Consent Order (this is not intended to disrupt any of the Bank's existing residential mortgage servicing related contracts, outsourced activities, or obligations pursuant to legal settlement, nor prohibit new contracts to outsource activities that are currently outsourced); (4) no new off-shoring of residential mortgage servicing related activities without prior OCC supervisory non-objection until termination of the Consent Order; and (5) no new appointments of senior officers who have responsibility for residential mortgage servicing, residential mortgage servicing operations, residential mortgage servicing risk management, and residential mortgage servicing compliance without prior OCC supervisory non-objection until termination of the Consent Order;

WHEREAS, the OCC will also take additional supervisory and/or enforcement actions, including possible civil money penalties, subject to all appropriate procedural processes, in order to address the Bank's overall noncompliance with the Consent Order, the nature and severity of which will reflect the nature, length and severity of the Bank's continued noncompliance through final termination of the Consent Order;

WHEREAS, notwithstanding this Amendment, the OCC continues to retain oversight and jurisdiction of the Independent Foreclosure Review Qualified Settlement Fund 1 ("IFR QSF1") established by the 2013 ACO for the administration of payments to borrowers of OCC regulated institutions until such time as the paying agent is directed to file a final return with the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") for IFR QSF1 and IFR QSF1 is thereafter terminated; and

WHEREAS, the OCC has determined that uncashed payments to borrowers of OCC regulated institutions should remain available to such borrowers, or such borrowers' rightful heirs, through the states' escheatment processes, after IFR QSF1 is terminated.

ARTICLE XII

COMPLIANCE AND EXTENSIONS OF TIME

The provisions of Article XII of the Consent Order are hereby revised as follows:

Any written requests submitted pursuant to this Article shall include a statement setting forth in detail the special circumstances that prevent the Bank from complying with a provision, that require the Deputy Comptroller to exempt the Bank from a provision, or that require an extension of a timeframe detailed within this Amendment.

(2) All such requests shall be accompanied by relevant supporting documentation, and to the extent requested by the Deputy Comptroller, a sworn affidavit or affidavits setting forth any other facts upon which the Bank relies. The Deputy Comptroller's decision concerning a request is final and not subject to further review.

ARTICLE XIII

OTHER PROVISIONS

The provisions of Article XIII of the Consent Order are hereby revised as follows

- (1) The Bank is in continuing noncompliance with and in violation of the Consent Order, and continues to engage in unsafe and unsound practices.
- (2) The OCC will take additional supervisory and/or enforcement action, including possible civil money penalties, subject to all appropriate procedural processes, in order to address the Bank's overall noncompliance with the Consent Order, the nature and severity of which will reflect the nature, length and severity of the Bank's continued noncompliance with the Consent Order.
- (3) By stipulating to the issuance of this Amendment, the Bank has not consented to any enforcement actions beyond those enumerated in this Amendment, and fully retains its right to contest future actions.
- (4) Notwithstanding any other terms of this Amendment, the Comptroller specifically reserves and does not release the following:
 - (a) any right to institute an enforcement action for violations of the Articles contained in the Consent Order, with the exception of Article VII of the 2011 Consent Order, including the assessment of civil money penalties;
 - (b) any and all claims based upon acts or omissions subsequent to the effective date of the 2013 ACO;
 - (c) any and all claims based upon the origination of a residential mortgage loan, or the sale or transfer of a mortgage, security, or whole loan, whether legal or equitable, to, into, or for the benefit of a mortgage-backed security, trust, or special interest entity, including but not limited to mortgage loan securitizations and whole loan sales to such entities, except for any and all claims addressed in subparagraph (b) above;

(d) any liability arising under the Fair Housing Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 3601, et seq., or any other statute or law that prohibits discrimination of persons based on race, color, national origin, gender, disability, or any other protected status, including the non-discrimination provisions of the Equal Credit Opportunity Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 1691, et seq., or under the Federal Trade Commission Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 41, et seq., or any other statute or law that prohibits unfair or deceptive practices;

(e) any and all claims against individuals, including current and former employees, agents, officers, directors, or contractors of the Bank; and

(f) any and all actions to enforce the terms and conditions of this Amendment.

(5) Although this Amendment requires the Bank to submit certain action plans, programs, policies, and procedures for the review or prior written determination of no supervisory objection by the Deputy Comptroller or the Examiner-in-Charge, the Board has the ultimate responsibility for proper and sound management of the Bank.

(6) In each instance in the Consent Order in which the Board is required to ensure adherence to, and undertake to perform certain obligations of the Bank, it is intended to mean that the Board shall:

(a) authorize and adopt such actions on behalf of the Bank as may be necessary for the Bank to perform its obligations and undertakings under the terms of the Consent Order;

(b) require the timely reporting by Bank management of such actions directed by the Board to be taken under the terms of the Consent Order;

(c) follow-up on any material noncompliance with such actions in a timely and appropriate manner; and

(d) require corrective action be taken in a timely manner of any material non compliance with such actions.

(7) If, at any time, the Comptroller deems it appropriate in fulfilling the responsibilities placed upon him by the several laws of the United States to undertake any action affecting the Bank, nothing in the Consent Order or Amendment shall in any way inhibit, estop, bar, or otherwise prevent the Comptroller from so doing.

(8) This Amendment is and shall become effective upon its execution by the Comptroller, through his authorized representative whose hand appears below. The Consent Order shall remain effective and enforceable, except to the extent that, and until such time as, any provision of the Consent Order shall be amended, suspended, waived, or terminated in writing by the Comptroller.

(9) Any time limitations imposed by this Amendment shall begin to run from the effective date of this Amendment, as shown below, unless the Amendment specifies otherwise.

(10) The terms and provisions of the Consent Order and Amendment apply to the Bank and its subsidiaries, even though those subsidiaries are not named as parties to the Consent Order or Amendment. The Bank shall integrate any foreclosure or mortgage servicing activities done by a subsidiary into its plans, policies, programs, and processes required by the Consent Order and Amendment. The Bank shall ensure that its subsidiaries comply with all terms and provisions of the Consent Order and Amendment.

(11) This Amendment is intended to be, and shall be construed to be, a final order issued pursuant to 12 U.S.C. § 1818(b), and expressly does not form, and may not be construed to form, a contract binding the Comptroller or the United States. Nothing in this Amendment shall affect any action against the Bank or its institution-affiliated parties by a bank regulatory agency, the United States Department of Justice, or any other law enforcement agency, to the extent permitted under applicable law.

(12) The terms of this Amendment, including this paragraph, are not subject to modification by any extraneous expression, prior agreements, or prior arrangements between the parties, whether oral or written.

(13) Nothing in the Stipulation to this Amendment, express or implied, shall give to any person or entity, other than the parties hereto, and their successors hereunder, any benefit or any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under the Stipulation to this Amendment.

(14) The Bank consents to the issuance of this Amendment before the filing of any notices, or taking of any testimony or adjudication, and solely for the purpose of settling this matter without a formal proceeding being filed.

ARTICLE XIV

BUSINESS RESTRICTIONS

(1) The Bank shall not execute any new contracts or amend or renew existing contracts beyond current loan volume specified in existing contracts for the acquisition, by the Bank, of residential mortgage servicing, residential mortgage servicing rights, residential mortgage loans with servicing, or residential mortgage origination business entities without prior OCC supervisory non-objection until termination of the Consent Order. This does not apply to originations or refinancings by the Bank, contracts for new residential mortgage loans through the Bank's broker or correspondent channels, or other contractual relationships where

(3) The Bank shall not outsource or sub-service any new residential mortgage servicing related activities to other parties without prior OCC supervisory non-objection until termination of the Consent Order. (4) The Bank shall not off-shore new residential mortgage servicing related activities without prior OCC supervisory non-objection until termination of the Consent Order.

(5) The Bank shall not appoint any new senior officers who have responsibility for residential mortgage servicing, residential mortgage servicing operations, residential mortgage servicing risk management, and residential mortgage servicing compliance without prior OCC supervisory non-objection until termination of the Consent Order. STIPULATION AND CONSENT TO THE ISSUANCE OF A
CONSENT ORDER AMENDING THE 2011 CONSENT ORDER and 2013 AMENDMENT TO THE 2011 CONSENT ORDER

The Comptroller of the Currency of the United States of America (“Comptroller”) intends to amend the April 13, 2011 Consent Order, AA-EC-11-15 (“2011 Consent Order”), and the Amendment to the 2011 Consent Order, dated February 28, 2013 (“2013 ACO”), entered into between the Comptroller and JP Morgan Chase Bank, N.A., Columbus, Ohio (“Bank”), (collectively, the “Consent Order”), pursuant to 12 U.S.C. § 1818(b).

The Bank, in the interest of compliance and cooperation, enters into this Stipulation and Consent to the Issuance of a Consent Order Amending the 2011 Consent Order and 2013 ACO (“Stipulation”).

In consideration of the above premises, the Comptroller, through his authorized representative, and the Bank, through its duly elected and acting Board of Directors, stipulate and agree to the following:

ARTICLE I

JURISDICTION

(1) The Bank is a national banking association chartered and examined by the Comptroller pursuant to the National Bank Act of 1864, as amended, 12 U.S.C. § 1 et seq.

(2) The Comptroller is “the appropriate Federal banking agency” regarding the Bank pursuant to 12 U.S.C. §§ 1813(q) and 1818(b).

(3) The Bank is an “insured depository institution” within the meaning of 12 U.S.C. § 1818(b)(1).

(4) For the purposes of, and within the meaning of 12 C.F.R. §§ 5.3(g)(4), 5.51(c)(6), and 24.2(e)(4), the Consent Order Amending the 2011 Consent Order and 2013 ACO (“Amendment”) shall not be construed to be a “cease and desist order” or “consent order,” unless the OCC informs the Bank otherwise.

ARTICLE II

AGREEMENT

(1) The Bank, without admitting or denying any wrongdoing, consents and agrees to issuance of the Amendment by the Comptroller.

(2) The Bank consents and agrees that the Amendment shall: (a) be deemed an “order issued with the consent of the depository institution” pursuant to 12 U.S.C. § 1818(h)(2); (b) become effective upon its execution by the Comptroller through his authorized representative; and (c) be fully enforceable by the Comptroller pursuant to 12 U.S.C. § 1818(i).

(3) Notwithstanding the absence of mutuality of obligation, or of consideration, or of a contract, the Comptroller may enforce any of the commitments or obligations herein undertaken by the Bank under his supervisory powers, including 12 U.S.C. § 1818(i), and not as a matter of contract law. The Bank expressly acknowledges that neither the Bank nor the Comptroller has any intention to enter into a contract.

(4) The Bank declares that no separate promise or inducement of any kind has been made by the Comptroller, or by his agents or employees, to cause or induce the Bank to consent to the issuance of the Amendment and/or execute the Amendment.

(5) The Bank expressly acknowledges that no officer or employee of the Comptroller has statutory or other authority to bind the United States, the United States Treasury Department, the Comptroller, or any other federal bank regulatory agency or entity, or any officer or employee of any of those entities to a contract affecting the Comptroller's exercise of his supervisory responsibilities.

(6) The terms and provisions of this Stipulation and the Amendment shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of, the parties hereto and their successors in interest. Nothing in this Stipulation or the Amendment, express or implied, shall give to any person or entity, other than the parties hereto, and their successors hereunder, any benefit or any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under this Stipulation or the Amendment.

ARTICLE III

WAIVERS

(1) The Bank, by consenting to this Stipulation, waives:

(a) any and all procedural rights available in connection with the issuance of the Amendment;

- (b) all rights to a hearing and a final agency decision pursuant to 12 U.S.C. §§ 1818(b) and (h), 12 C.F.R. Part 19;
- (c) all rights to seek any type of administrative or judicial review of the Amendment;
- (d) any and all claims for fees, costs or expenses against the Comptroller, or any of his agents or employees, related in any way to this enforcement matter or the Amendment, whether arising under common law or under the terms of any statute, including, but not limited to, the Equal Access to Justice Act, 5 U.S.C. § 504 and 28 U.S.C. § 2412; and
- (e) any and all rights to challenge or contest the validity of the Amendment.

ARTICLE IV

OTHER PROVISIONS

(1) The provisions of this Stipulation shall not inhibit, estop, bar, or otherwise prevent the Comptroller from taking any other action affecting the Bank if, at any time, it deems it appropriate to do so to fulfill the responsibilities placed upon it by the several laws of the United States of America.

(2) Nothing in this Stipulation shall preclude any proceedings brought by the Comptroller to enforce the terms of the Amendment, and nothing in this Stipulation constitutes, nor shall the Bank contend that it constitutes, a waiver of any right, power, or authority of any other representative of the United States or an agency thereof, including, without limitation, the United States Department of Justice, to bring other actions deemed appropriate.

(3) The terms of this Stipulation and the Amendment are not subject to amendment or modification by any extraneous expression, prior agreements or prior arrangements between the parties, whether oral or written.
