GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Who must file: Section 207.3(a) of Federal Reserve Regulation G requires that FR Form G-1 be completed by every person (other than commercial banks, brokers or dealers) who during any calendar quarter extends a total of $200,000 or more, or has outstanding a total of $500,000 or more, in credit secured directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, by collateral that includes any margin stock.

When and where to file: The form should be filed in duplicate with the Federal Reserve Bank of the district in which the principal office of subject person is located within 30 days following the end of such quarter in which credit has been extended or is outstanding in accordance with Section 207.3(a). This registration statement will remain in effect until a FR Form G-2 (deregistration statement) is approved by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

What to file: All persons subject to the registration requirements of Section 207.3(a) should (i) supply the background information specified below; (ii) complete Schedule A; and (iii) submit two copies of a balance sheet, certified by an independent public accountant, for the registrant's latest fiscal year. If the registrant is subject to supervision by a State or Federal regulatory authority, a copy of the latest balance sheet filed with such authority may be used. If neither is available, the registrant should complete Schedule B on page 4.

*A registrant who is an individual is not required to disclose his or her Social Security number.

Registration forms will be returned to registrants for corrections if all items have not been answered in the manner required or if the forms are otherwise unacceptable for filing.

DEFINITIONS

Terms used in this form are explained below. Precise definitions may be found in Section 207.2 of Regulation G.

Person: Any individual, corporation, partnership, association, joint stock company, business trust, or unincorporated organization.

Purpose credit: Credit extended for the purpose of purchasing or carrying margin stock, or to reduce or retire indebtedness previously incurred for that purpose.

In the ordinary course of business: Occurring or reasonably expected to occur from time to time in the course of any activity of a person for profit or the management and preservation of property or, in the case of a person other than an individual, carrying out or in furtherance of any business purpose.

Margin stock: Includes (1) stocks registered on a national securities exchange, stocks on the Federal Reserve Board's List of Marginable OTC Stocks, or any OTC security designated for trading in the National Market System, (2) debt securities that are convertible into, or carry a warrant or right to subscribe to or purchase margin stock, (3) any such warrant or right, and (4) shares of most mutual funds.

Indirectly secured: In general, credit is indirectly secured by margin stock if there is an understanding between the borrower and the lender (1) which is designated to make the margin stock more available to the lender in case of default than to the borrower's other creditors, or (2) which limits the borrower from exercising full dominion over the margin stock to sell, pledge, or donate them, or determining where they shall be placed physically.
