TO: Chief Executive Officers and Compliance Officers of National Banks and Federal Branches, Department and Division Heads, and Examining Personnel

In July 2000, the U.S. Department of the Treasury’s Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN) issued a series of advisories identifying 15 countries with serious deficiencies in their counter-money-laundering systems.1 Since then, FinCEN has issued additional advisories eliminating or revising some of those original advisories2.

The attached FinCEN advisory 27W withdraws FinCEN advisory 27, issued July 2000, regarding the jurisdiction of St. Vincent and the Grenadines. Enhanced scrutiny of transactions with this jurisdiction is no longer necessary due to the enactment of significant reforms to its counter-money-laundering systems and the concrete steps taken to bring these reforms into effect. The FinCEN advisory is consistent with the June 20, 2003, Financial Action Task Force on Money Laundering decision to remove St. Vincent and the Grenadines from its list of countries that are noncooperative in the fight against money laundering.

FinCEN advisories remain in effect for the following jurisdictions3:

- The Arab Republic of Egypt,
- Burma,
- The Cook Islands,
- The Federal Republic of Nigeria,
- Nauru,
- The Philippines, and
- Ukraine.

The FinCEN advisories on the above jurisdictions emphasize the need for enhanced scrutiny of certain transactions and banking relationships in these jurisdictions to ensure that appropriate measures are taken to minimize risk for money laundering. Please refer to OCC AL 2000-8 for

FinCEN Advisory

WITHDRAWAL

This Advisory is being issued to inform banks and other financial institutions operating in the United States that Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN) Advisory Issue 27, regarding St. Vincent and the Grenadines, is hereby withdrawn.

Since the issuance of Advisory 27, St. Vincent and the Grenadines has enacted significant reforms to its counter-money laundering system, addressing the points noted in Advisory 27, and has taken concrete steps to bring these reforms into effect. Because of the enactment of new laws and the beginning of effective implementation, enhanced scrutiny with respect to transactions involving St. Vincent and the Grenadines, as called for in Advisory 27, is no longer necessary. St. Vincent and the Grenadines now has in place a counter-money laundering system that generally meets international standards, as reflected in the June 20, 2003, decision of the Financial Action Task Force on Money Laundering to remove St. Vincent and the Grenadines from its list of countries that are non-cooperative in the fight against money laundering.

The withdrawal of Advisory 27 does not relieve institutions of their pre-existing and on-going obligation to report suspicious activity, as set forth in regulations issued by FinCEN and by the federal bank supervisory agencies, as well as their obligation to comply with all other applicable provisions of law.
