

RESCINDED

OCC 2006-48

Subject: Revisions to 12 CFR 215 (Regulation O)

Date: December 20, 2006

To: Chief Executive Officers and Compliance Officers of All National Banks, Department and Division Heads, and All Examining Personnel

Description: Repeal of Certain Reporting Requirements

On December 11, 2006, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System published amendments to 12 CFR 215 (Regulation O) in the Federal Register removing certain reporting requirements regarding extensions of credit to bank insiders. 71 Federal Register 71472. These amendments implement section 601 of the Financial Services Regulatory Relief Act of 2006, which was signed into law on October 13. The sections of the regulation that have been removed are:

- 12 CFR 215.9, which required executive officers of banks to report to their bank's board of directors whenever they obtained certain extensions of credit from another bank;
- 12 CFR 215.10, which required banks to file a report on new loans to executive officers with each Report of Condition (call report); and
- All of Subpart B (12 CFR 215.20-215.23), which required reports and disclosures concerning extensions of credit from correspondent banks to a bank's executive officers or principal shareholders.

Accordingly, effective immediately, it is no longer necessary for national banks to file or obtain these reports.

Additionally, the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council (FFIEC) is planning to make conforming changes to call report forms and to discontinue FFIEC Form 004 (the report of extensions of credit made to a bank's insiders by a correspondent bank). The FFIEC will notify financial institutions directly about these changes. These changes are expected to be effective before the next call report is due. The elimination of these reporting requirements does not limit the authority of the appropriate federal banking agencies to take enforcement action against an institution or its insiders for violations of insider lending restrictions.

The amendment to the regulation is attached for your information. If you have any questions about it, please contact the Bank Activities and Structure Division of the Law Department at (202) 874-5300.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

Background and Description of Interim Rule

Section 22(h) of the Federal Reserve Act ("FRA") restricts the ability of member banks to extend credit to their executive officers, directors, principal shareholders, and to related interests of such persons.¹ Section 22(g) of the FRA imposes some additional limitations on extensions of credit made by member banks to their executive officers.² Section 106(b)(2) of the Bank Holding Company Act Amendments of 1970 ("BHC Act Amendments") adds further restrictions on extensions of credit to an executive officer, director, or principal shareholder of a bank from a correspondent bank.³ The Board's Regulation O implements sections 22(g) and 22(h) of the FRA, as well as section 106(b)(2) of the BHC Act Amendments.⁴ Sections 22(g) and 22(h) and Regulation O apply, by their terms, to all banks that are members of the Federal Reserve System.⁵ Other Federal law subjects federally insured state non-member banks and insured savings associations to sections 22(g) and 22(h) and Regulation O in the same manner and to the same extent as if they were member banks.⁶

Section 601 of the Financial Services Regulatory Relief Act of 2006 ("Act") (Pub. L. 109-351) removed several statutory reporting requirements relating to insider lending by member banks. These amendments, which became effective on October 13, 2006, eliminated the statutory provisions that:

- Require a member bank to include a separate report with its quarterly Reports of Condition and Income ("Call Report") on any extensions of credit the bank has made to its executive officers since its last Call Report (12 U.S.C. 375a(9));
 - Require an executive officer of a member bank to file a report with the member bank's board of directors whenever the executive officer obtains an extension of credit from another bank in an amount that exceeds the amount the executive officer could obtain from the member bank (12 U.S.C. 375a(6));
 - Require an executive officer or principal shareholder of a depository institution to file an annual report with the institution's board of directors during any year in which the officer or shareholder has an outstanding extension of credit from a correspondent bank of the institution (12 U.S.C. 1972(2)(G)(i)); and
 - Authorize the Federal banking agencies to issue regulations that require the reporting and public disclosure of information related to extensions of credit received by an executive officer or principal shareholder of a depository institution from a correspondent bank of the institution (12 U.S.C. 1972(2)(G)(ii)).
- The Board proposed and supported eliminating these statutory reporting provisions because the Board had found that they did not contribute significantly to the effective monitoring of insider lending or the prevention of insider abuse.

The Board is adopting, and inviting public comment on, this interim rule to implement the changes made by section 601 of the Act. In particular, the interim rule eliminates:

- Section 215.9 of Regulation O, which requires an executive officer of a member bank to file a report with the member bank's board of directors whenever the executive officer obtains certain extensions of credit from another bank;
- Section 215.10 of Regulation O, which requires a member bank to include a separate report with its quarterly Call Report on any extensions of credit the bank has made to its executive officers since its last Call Report; and

- Subpart B of Regulation O, which requires the reporting and public disclosure of extensions of credit to an executive officer or principal shareholder of a member bank by a correspondent bank of the member bank.

The interim rule also makes minor conforming changes to Regulation O to reflect the removal of these provisions. The Board invites comment on all aspects of the interim rule.

The Board notes that the changes made by section 601 and this interim rule do not alter the substantive restrictions on loans by depository institutions to their executive officers and principal shareholders found in Regulation O. Section 601 and this interim rule also do not alter the substantive restrictions on loans made to executive officers and principal shareholders of depository institutions by their correspondent banks found at 12 U.S.C. 1972(2). Moreover, elimination of these reporting requirements does not limit the authority of the appropriate Federal banking agency to take enforcement action against a depository institution or its insiders for violation of these insider lending restrictions. In addition, the Board notes that Regulation O would continue to require that a depository institution and its insiders maintain sufficient information to enable examiners to monitor the institution's compliance with the regulation,⁷ and the Federal banking agencies would retain authority under other provisions of law to collect information regarding insider lending by depository institutions.

Regulatory Flexibility Act Analysis

Pursuant to section 605(b) of the Regulatory Flexibility Act, the Board certifies that the interim rule would not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities within the meaning of the Regulatory Flexibility Act (5 U.S.C. 601 et seq.). Although the interim rule would apply to all member banks regardless of their size, the interim rule would reduce the regulatory burden on member banks, including small member banks, by removing requirements to report certain types of extensions of credit to insiders and to insiders of correspondent banks. Accordingly, a regulatory flexibility analysis is not required.

Administrative Procedure Act

The provisions of the rule are effective on December 11, 2006. Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 553, the Board finds that there is good cause to make the interim rule effective on December 11, 2006. As noted above, the rule implements statutory changes that became effective on October 13, 2006, and also reduces burden. The Board is interested in public comment on all aspects of the interim rule and will revise the interim rule as appropriate after reviewing public comment.

Paperwork Reduction Act

In accordance with the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 (44 U.S.C. Ch. 3506; 5 CFR 1320 Appendix A.1), the Board reviewed the interim final rule under the authority delegated to the Board by the Office of Management and Budget.

The collections of information that are proposed to be revised by this rulemaking are found in 12 CFR 215.9 and 215.10, and 12 CFR part 215, subpart B. This information previously was required to evidence compliance with the requirements of the Federal Reserve Act (12 U.S.C. 375a and 375b) and 12 U.S.C. 1972. The respondents/recordkeepers are for-profit financial institutions, including small businesses, and individuals.

The Federal Reserve may not conduct or sponsor, and an organization is not required to respond to, this information collection unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number. The OMB control number associated with 12 CFR 215.9 and 12 CFR part 215, subpart B is 7100-0034 (FFIEC 004). The OMB control number associated with 12 CFR 215.10 is 7100-0036 (FFIEC 031 and 041). The FFIEC 004 would be discontinued as a result of this rule. The estimated burden per response for each of the paperwork requirements associated with the FFIEC 004 information collection varies between nine minutes and one hour. It is estimated that there are 4,760 respondents and recordkeepers and an average frequency of one response per respondent each year. The total amount of annual burden that would be saved as a result of this rule is estimated to be 5,331 hours. The estimated annual cost savings would be $239,895. In addition, the last page of the FFIEC 031 and 041 reporting forms (loans to executive officers), which is associated with 12 CFR 215.10, would be eliminated as a result of this rule. The estimated burden per response for this portion of the reporting forms is fifteen minutes. It is estimated that there are 919 respondents and an average frequency of four responses per respondent each year. Therefore the total amount of annual burden that would be eliminated is estimated to be 919 hours and there is estimated to be minimal cost savings.

For the FFIEC 004, individual respondent financial information is regarded as confidential under the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552(b)(4), (6) and (8)). However, until the passage of the Act and the issuance of this interim rule, upon request from the public the member bank has been required to disclose the name of each executive officer and principal shareholder who, together with related interests, has loans from correspondent banks equal to a minimum of 5 percent of the member bank's capital and surplus, or $500,000, whichever is less. For the FFIEC 031 and 041, the data are not considered confidential.

The Federal Reserve has a continuing interest in the public's opinions of our collections of information. At any time, comments regarding the burden estimate, or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing the burden, may be sent to: Secretary, Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, 20th and C Streets, NW., Washington, DC 20551; and to the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project (7100-0034 or 7100-0036), Washington, DC 20503.

Plain Language

Section 722 of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (12 U.S.C. 4809) requires the Board to use "plain language" in all rules published in the Federal Register. The Board believes the interim rule is presented in a simple and straightforward manner but invites comment on whether the Board could take additional steps to make the rule easier to understand.
